where the Lord will be known to Egypt and they will know the Lord in that day will make sacrifice and offering. Yes, they will make a vow to the Lord and perform it. The Lord will strike Egypt, He will strike and heal it.

They will return to the Lord and He will be entreated by them and heal them. Then look at this, in verse 23, in that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria and the Assyrian will come into Egypt and the Egyptian into Assyria and the Egyptians will serve with the Assyrians. In that day Israel will be one of three with Egypt and Assyria.

Remember I was talking about the number three, you've got the first, the middle and the last. A blessing in the midst of the land whom the Lord of hosts shall bless saying, blessed is Egypt my people and Assyria the work of my hands. This is the Assyria that's attacking them, they're looking for aid and God says you don't need to fear the Assyrians and you don't need to run to the Egyptians, there's a day coming when they are going to be your flank security.

There's going to be a highway running from Assyria to Egypt and back and I'm going to say that Egypt is my people and Assyria is the work of my hands and Israel is my inheritance. This situation will pertain in the millennial kingdom and my belief is that those individuals who have been faithful and yet maybe have not qualified to dwell in the land with the Lord Jesus Christ as he sits on the throne of his father David, the next to the greatest place to live is going to be either in Assyria or in Egypt because it's going to be a threefold kingdom and God is going to embrace these two lands, one to the north and one to the south as the work of his hands and as his people. He says Egypt will be my people, Assyria the work of my hands.

So there's going to be a unique relationship in these three and isn't it interesting that Egypt has run the gamut, it spans the spectrum, the work of his hands, the place of oppression, the place of slavery, Assyria the work of my hands, a place of deliverance, a unique relationship, a place of slavery in these three. Isn't it interesting that Egypt has run the gamut, it spans a unique relationship of the number of places of oppression, the number of places of slavery, the number of places of deliverance, and it's going to be back to being called the people of God in the millennial.
